Judge and revenge my cause, O Lord

Judge and revenge my cause, O Lord from them that evil be: from wicked and deceitful men, O Lord deliver me. O Lord God deliver me, for all my strength thou art the God why puts thou me thee from? And why walk I so heavily oppressed with my foe? Send out thy light and eke thy truth: and lead me with thy grace, which may conduct me to thy hill and to thy dwelling place. Then shall I to the altar go, of God my joy and cheer: and on my harp give thanks to thee, O God, my God most dear. Why are thou then so sad my soul, and frets thus in my breast? Still trust in God for him to praise, I hold it always best. By him I have deliverance against all pains and grief: he is my God which does always at need send me relief.

Text is a metrical paraphrase of Psalm 43
