

The Shepherds Amazed

words from A Good Christmas Box, 1847

Ambrose Probert Porter (1885-1971) edited by Richard Shakeshaft mf with animation

Soprano
Alto

The shep - herds a - maz - ed the an - gels be - hold, de - clare the glad tides of the morn; the
Be - hold, in a man - ger the Lord he is laid, who came our sal - va - tion to bring; go In Beth - le - hem ci - ty the pro - phets a - gree a vir - gin should bring forth a son; go
The shep - herds o - bey'd and the babe did es - py, the an - gels most sweet - ly did sing; let's

mf

Tenor
Bass

please license this copy at imprimis.uk

8

to remove this watermark

time is ful - fil'd that the pro - phets fore - told, and Christ your re - deem - er is born. seek him, ye shep - herds and be not af - raid, he is your re - deem - er and king. All haste to the sta - ble, ye shep - herds and see, for as it was said it is done.
join in their songs to the great God on high for send - ing our sa - viour and king.

15

mf

glo - ry and hon - our to God our Cre - a - tor, who came from his glo - ry on high; in 22

f

strict time; rall.
for last verse only

hum - ble sub - mis - sion took on him our na - ture, that we might par - take of his joy.